COAT OF ARMS

GRAHAM

The arms illustrated are described heraldically as Or, on a chief sable three escallops of the field; Crest: Two wings addorsed gules. Writers in the past have attributed symbolism to the tinctures & charges of heraldry--thus, or (gold) is said to denote Generosity; sable (black), Wisdom; & gules (red), Magnanimity. The chief signifies Authority; the wing, Celerity & Protection; whilst the escallop was originally the badge of the pilgrim.

HISTORY OF THE GRAHAM NAME

The surname Graham is locative in origin; that is to say it is derived from the name of a place. It is, in fact, a Norman form of Grantham, a town in Lincolnshire, England. The meaning is "Granta's homestead". The surname is associated with Scotland, the first bearers of the name recorded there being William de Graham in 1127. Early records also mention Henry de Graham in the early 1200's and Sir John de Graham in 1298. James Graham, the fifth Earl of Montrose is recorded from 1612-1650. He carried on the war in Scotland on behalf of Charles I. He was made a marquis in 1644, but was later betrayed and executed. John Graham (1649-1689), of Claverhouse, was active in Scotland against the Covenanters. In 1688, he joined James II in England as second in command of the Scottish forces, but after the king's fall, returned to Scotland where he was slain in battle. Among the early emigrants from Britain to America was Andrew Graham who is recorded in Virginia in 1651. John Graham (1694-1773) was an American divine and author. Joseph Graham (1759-1836) was a soldier of the Revolutionary War and Sylvester Graham (1794-1851) was an advocate of vegetarianism. Now you may wonder why the surname Graham, which was in origin an English name, was associated with Scotland. The reason is Scotland takes up the Northern part of the Island of Great Britain. The country was once an independent kingdom, but it has been a part of the United Kingdom since 1707. The Scots gave Scotland its name. They were the people who came from Ireland in the 500's and founded the first Scottish Kingdom. So this brings us back to the fact that our ancestors were originally from Ireland. There was a Graham recorded in 1802 in Conwayborough when the first Board of Commissioners was organized. He was John Graham, Sr. and served on this Board along with 7 other men. There was also a W. I. Graham who served as sheriff of Horry County during the 1850's.

Grahams of Horry

By Harmon Dock Graham

Son of Dock Harmon Graham and Sallie Jane Shelley Graham

She was the daughter of Volley Braxton Shelley and Amelia Angeline Graham.

As a boy growing up in rural Horry County, we lived near my mother's people, the Shelley's, near the Pleasant View community. Though I never had much contact with the Graham family in my early years, I heard a lot about them from my father. He was always talking about them and always told me there were several families of Grahams in the county, but as far as he knew, we were only kin to those who were living around Aynor.

As a young man I became more curious and interested in the Grahams who were not believed to be related to us. In 1972 I began doing research into my family history. At that time I had heard from older family members that the first of our ancestors in Horry County was Alpha A. Graham (1826-1900) and that he came to this country from Ireland. I began my search by looking at census records, archives records in Columbia, and checking lots of tombs in area cemeteries. One of the first important findings I made was that Alpha A. Graham and his parents, as well, were born in South Carolina, not in Ireland. At that point I became even more interested in finding out about our ancestors and where they came from.

Early in my research I found the first South Carolina census on microfilm in the Horry County library. It was the 1790 census and showed five Grahams listed as "heads of households". They were John, Joseph, Gilbert, William, and Jennet Graham. Through further research, I found that John and William were brothers and sons of John and Mary Graham. There is a possibility the others were in the same family, but I never found proof. John and William Graham lived near Mitchell Swamp. Joseph Graham lived near Play Card Swamp. I assume Gilbert Graham lived in the same general area. Though he never showed up in another census, he had two sons who did live in that area. I never found any other information on Jennet Graham.

My search took me to many interesting and historical places, including records of the first settlers in Savannah, Georgia. I found valuable records there, including a publication - A LIST OF EARLY SETTLERS OF GEORGIA. In 1730 King George II of Great Britain sent James Oglethorpe to Georgia to supervise the settlement of the planned community of Savannah. During 1733, several shiploads of people arrived in Savannah, were given a lot on which to build a house, and a tract of land to grow food. This information is all recorded in A LIST OF EARLY SETTLERS OF GEORGIA. On June 15, 1733 a ship left London and arrived in Savannah August 29, 1733. According to a publication by Sarah B. Gober Temple and Kenneth Coleman, GEORGIA JOURNEYS, the ship was named "Georgia Pink" and left on the Thames River in London. Among those passengers were John Graham, his wife, Mary, and children, John, Mary, and Will. This man lived in Savannah, was given lot number 98, was a farmer and tanner and left for Carolina December 9, 1738. According to records, their children, John and Will died in November 1733, John on the 22nd and Will on the 28th.

The earliest record I found of Grahams in Horry County was John Graham, who purchased 3300 acres of land on Mitchell Swamp from William Coachman in June 1766. On December 7, 1767 a 500 acre tract of land was surveyed and on February 23, 1768, he received a Royal Grant for that land. There is no reason not to believe this is the same John Graham who came from Savannah as there were no other Grahams in this area at this early date and he had the same trade.

I believe this first John Graham and his wife, Mary, were the parents of John and William Graham listed in the 1790 census of Horry County. Though they had a John and William that died as children, it was a common practice during that time period to give children the same names as those who had died early in life.

The second John Graham (1746-1811) and his wife, Martha, had several children, one of which was Joseph Graham (1790-after 1860), father of Alpha A. Graham (1826-1900). This John Graham served in the revolutionary war. He was a captain in Co. "G" of Colonel Peter Horry's Regiment. There are South Carolina Archive records that show he paid for rations for the troops from January through February 16, 1779. There was another entry that showed he had hired a cart and two horses and provided forage for the horses, for the use of the regiment, from January through February 17, 1779. In 1792 he had land granted to him on the south side of Lake Swamp above the mouth of Joyner Swamp. In 1802 he served on the First Board of Commissioners in Conwayborough, South Carolina. In 1804 he sold his land on Mitchell Swamp to his brother, William. After he sold out to William, he moved to the land granted to him in 1792. In 1805 he served as one of the Justices of the Quorum for the Horry District of South Carolina. He died in 1811 and left his son, Joseph, in charge of his grist mill plantation.

As is shown above, the first John Graham had a son named William Graham (1748-1824), brother of the second John Graham mentioned above. He was married to Elizabeth Bellamy and one of their sons was William Bellamy Graham. The following is a copy of an article in a Georgetown, South Carolina newspaper, telling of his untimely death.

WINYAH OBSERVER

Georgetown, S. C., Wednesday, November 25, 1846 "Casualty - - Mr. William B. Graham, of Horry, came to town on Thursday last in a four oared boat to procure some family supplies, and departed again at an early hour the same evening. The wind was high and his boat so heavily laded that she filled after getting into the bay near the old fort and immediately capsized. There were five persons in the boat and of the number a stranger by the name of Smith, who was allowed his passage up the Waccamaw, on his way to Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Graham and Mr. Smith were drowned. The other white men and two negroes were saved. Mr. Graham was a very respectable and influential citizen of Horry, and has left surviving him a wife and seventeen children. Three or four of his sons came down the river on Sabbath last in search of his body. Our bay is a dangerous sheet of water in bad weather, and it should not be attempted to be crossed in any other than large and good boats. The annual casualties should be a warning to strangers and all." Note: William Bellamy Graham's body was found and he was buried in the Old Graham Cemetery on Mitchell Swamp.

Alpha A. Graham (1826-1900), son of Joseph Graham (1790-after 1860), served in the Confederate War. He enlisted May 29, 1863 at Columbia, South Carolina and was a Private in Co. F, Infantry Regiment of the Hampton Legion of South Carolina.

The following information was obtained from William (James) Rabon, a great-grandson of Joseph Isaiah Graham, son of Joseph Graham (1790-1860):

Joseph Isaiah Graham and Willis Rabon were at the feeding ground during free range time and had a fight over hogs. Willis died. When Willis died, Joseph Isaiah went to the Horry County Sheriff, W. I. Graham (served in the 1850's), his cousin, for advice. He advised him to leave South Carolina because when the news of the killing became public, he would be hung. So he fled to Florida. Sheriff Graham had a brother, John Conner Graham, who lived in Conner, Florida and Joseph Isaiah's family always assumed that was where he went, leaving his family behind. His daughter, Catherine, received letters from him through the years until his death. The only remembrances she had of her father were those letters and a lock of his hair which she kept in a trunk until her death. She never would tell what part of Florida he was living.

Catherine Graham b. 1839 d. Jun-19-1933
Married to Abraham B. Rabon

Abe Rabon Hanging

In 1856 Big Abe Rabon and his sons, Little Abe and Duke, farmed in the Poplar section of Cool Spring about 10 miles from Conway. Another family of Rabons, a brother of Big Abe's, lived nearby. It seems that the boys of the other Rabon family, cousins of Little Abe and Duke, got in the habit of feeding their hogs on the lands of the Big Abe Rabon family. They were told to stop it or there was going to be trouble. Little Abe's cousin, Willie, and his smaller brother kept feeding their hogs on Abe Rabon's land. So the next time Willie and his brother were caught feeding their hogs on their land, Big Abe told his oldest son, Little Abe, to go down there and take a stick and break his neck or something. Little Abe went down there and took an oak grub stick and caught Willie Rabon and beat him to death with the grub stick. The other brother got away. Big Abe, Little Abe, and his brother, Duke, were arrested and put in jail for the killing. The trial came up at the March term of court. Big Abe and Duke were exonerated. Little Abe was found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged in June.

The Judge's name was not disclosed, but the Sheriff was W. H. (Hickory Bill) Johnston.

Big Abe went to the Judge and pleaded with him to let him take his son home. He told him he had a big crop to make and he needed his son to help him to make it. The Judge granted him this privilege and set the execution day in November. On the day set for the hanging, Big Abe brought Little Abe on an ox cart and at 11 o'clock that morning he turned him over to Sheriff Johnston. Big Abe had also brought a pine coffin he had made for Little Abe to be buried in. Little Abe was hanged at 12 o'clock that day in the old muster field. People came in for miles to witness the hanging. After it was over, Big Abe took his son, placed him in the coffin, and drove back home in a rain.

COMMANDER JOHNSON – LAST WHITE MAN HANGED

Now we are in the 20th Century. The next hanging that I will present is that of Commander Johnson. This case I would say created more contentions with equal publicity than any other criminal case in the history of Horry County up to this time. This case was in and out of court for 16 months before a final disposition was made. It involved three persons, Commander Johnson, Charlotte Simmons, and Rev. Harmon Grainger. This murder took place near Sanford (Now Allsbrook), on June 23, 1905 around 9 a.m. Rev. Harmon Grainger was shot and killed in his field while plowing cotton. His immediate family testified he was shot in the back twice, and fell upon his knees with his head falling on the round of the plow handles. He remained in this position until late in the afternoon upon the arrival of the sheriff and the coroner. The Sheriff was B. J. Sessions, and the coroner was Dr. H. H. Burroughs. This inquest lasted all night until dawn next morning.

As a result of the verdict the coroner's jury rendered, Sheriff Sessions arrested Commander Johnson and Charlotte Simmons and brought them to Conway and placed them in jail. From what I gathered, there was malice to a certain degree existing between these male characters. They had trouble about a timber deal Johnson had bought and Grainger claimed he would not pay him. Another major reason I would say that Rev. Grainger threatened to take out a warrant for Johnson and Charlotte Simmons for living in adultery. In the meantime Johnson was rated as a rough man. During this time, the Dead Line ran near where he lived. He boasted he had shot two or three negroes who had crossed this line.

At the fall term of criminal court on September 21, 1905, Commander Johnson was arraigned to stand trial for the murder of Rev. Harmon Grainger, with Charlotte Simmons, guilty with recommendation to mercy.

The court officials for this trial were:

Ernest Gary, Presiding Judge
Monroe Johnson, Solicitor
B. J. Sessions, Sheriff

Wofford Wait, Defense Attorney
Walter Mishoe, Clerk of Court
Lewis Roberts, Court Crier

Immediately after the verdict was rendered, Attorney Wofford Wait made a motion for a new trial; Judge Gary refused the motion. The next move Mr. Wait made was to appeal the case to the S. C. Supreme Court.

In November the condemned was transferred to the Marion County Jail upon the petition of defense attorney for special reasons.

In March 1906, this case was viewed by the State Supreme Court. The appeal was turned down and the condemned was sentenced to hang in May. In the meantime Judge Gary not proessed the case against Charlotte Simmons stating there was not enough evidence to convict her.

The next step made was to appeal the case to U. S. Supreme Court, but to no avail. This time Johnson was re-sentenced again by Judge J. C. Klugh to be hanged on Friday, October 26, 1906 between 12 noon and 2 p.m.

I must say Wofford Wait was very faithful and a dedicated man to his client, throughout these dark hours. I have heard that Mr. Wait walked to Marion to see his client when he was a prisoner in Marion County jail. The chances to save the life of this man became bleaker each day. His last hope was to present his case to the Governor who was C. D. Heyward. Governor Heyward was in Savannah, Georgia, on vacation, but he did honor Mr. Wait's request to meet him in Charleston. The result of the meeting was fruitless.

On Wednesday before execution day (Friday), Sheriff Sessions sent L. H. Burroughs and Albert Hardee (by train) to bring Johnson back and put in the Horry County Jail to await execution.

Right after 1 p.m. on Friday, October 26, 1906, Commander Johnson paid his debt to society by hanging for the murder of Rev. Harmon Grainger. His father received the body and he was buried in the cemetery at Methodist Rehobeth Church. I have been told that Sheriff Sessions bought the casket, and fine suit of clothes for the burial.
