

Horry County Historical Society

2026 Membership Form

EMAIL: HorryCountyHistoricalSociety@gmail.com WEBSITE: horrycountyhistory.org

The mission of the Horry County Historical Society is to discover and encourage the preservation of important written records and oral traditions touching on or pertaining to the history of Horry County, South Carolina; to aid and encourage individuals and associations in compiling and publishing historical material pertaining to Horry County; to encourage the preservation and restoration of historic buildings and sites in Horry County.

The Horry County Historical Society relies on membership dues to help support the works of the Society. Those works include maintenance of our headquarters – the Bryan House (built 1912), the maintenance of the historic (c. 1860) Quattlebaum Office, and erection of historical markers throughout the county. In addition, the Society continues to work to collect and preserve the heritage of Horry County through written articles and publications. This is our mission and it cannot be fulfilled without your help. Annual membership runs from Jan. 1 thru Dec. 31.
